01 · BRAND STORY

Who we are & why we exist

HerQalb (قلب — Arabic for "heart") is a faith-based self-development brand for Muslim women in their 20s who are navigating love, identity, and purpose. We exist at the intersection of Islamic principles and emotional healing — a space that has been largely underserved.

Our flagship product, Who Moved My Heart?, is a step-by-step guide to attracting the right kind of love — not by searching harder, but by coming home to yourself first.

OUR MISSION

To help Muslim women love themselves the way Allah already does

We create content, ebooks, and community experiences that reconnect women to their inherent worth — through Islamic principles, honest conversation, and practical tools for growth.

OUR VISION

A generation of Muslim women who never settle

Not for half-love, half-answers, or a version of themselves that feels like less than enough. HerQalb is building a community where faith and self-worth are inseparable.

OUR AUDIENCE

Muslim women in their 20s feeling lost or stuck

She's spiritually curious, emotionally intelligent, and tired of content that feels performative. She values authenticity

OUR PROMISE

Real guidance. No filters. Rooted in faith.

We don't do toxic positivity or empty affirmations. We ask hard questions, sit with difficult truths, and offer a path above all else and can detect anything that isn't real from a mile away.

forward that is grounded in the deen and honest about the journey.

02 · COLOUR PALETTE

Deep Plum · Blush Antique Gold

The HerQalb palette is intentionally distinct from the sage-green and terracotta that saturate the Muslim women's wellness space. Plum signals emotional depth and dignity. Blush signals warmth and femininity. Antique gold signals the sacred and the worthy.

05 · VOICE & TONE

How HerQalb speaks

Our voice is the voice of a wise older friend — someone who has been through it, who doesn't sugarcoat, but who holds your hand through every hard truth. She is warm but not soft. Honest but never harsh. Faith-centred but never preachy.

WE ARE

Intimate & Direct

We speak directly to one woman, not a crowd. "I see you" not "Muslim women often feel..." First person plural (we) and second person singular (you) only.

WE ARE

Faith-Rooted, Not Preachy

Quranic verses and hadith are woven in naturally — as comfort and context, never as judgement. We never make her feel like a bad Muslim.

WE ARE

Emotionally Honest

We name the ache, the confusion, the quiet despair before we offer any answers. She needs to feel seen before she'll feel helped.

WE ARE

Grounded & Practical

Beautiful quotes alone aren't enough. We always offer a next step — a journal prompt, a dua, a concrete action. Hope without direction isn't enough.

WE ARE NOT

Toxic Positivity

WE ARE NOT

Performative

We don't say "just trust Allah and everything will be fine." We acknowledge the difficulty, sit with it honestly, and then point toward the light.

Our audience has a finely tuned detector for content that isn't real. Every word must be something Leen would actually say to a friend sitting across from her.

COPY EXAMPLES

✓ THIS IS HERQALB

"You don't need to find the right person. You need to become her."

✓ THIS IS HERQALB

"Nothing is wrong with you. But something is missing — and it has nothing to do with how you look, how religious you are, or how much longer you have to wait."

✕ THIS IS NOT HERQALB

"Stay positive! Allah has a plan for you and everything will work out perfectly insha'Allah! 🌸✨"
